

Introduction to Herding

with Lori Waters

Saturday, March 31, 2012

10am – 4pm

If you have ever wanted to try herding with your dog this is an excellent place to start. This one day indoor workshop will introduce you to some of the basic elements of herding.

Participants will get to experience the dogs role first hand as they maneuver live ducks through training exercises and obstacle courses. These fun and interesting exercises help handlers understand very important concepts required for effective stock handling such as balance and pressure.

Herding terminology and commands will be explained and discussed and proper waterfowl management and handling will be gone over. Dogs with working spots will be introduced to stock and have their herding instincts discussed and evaluated. All working dogs will be handled by Lori.

This seminar will be held indoors at
For Your K9, 1975 Cornell Ave,
Melrose Park, IL 60160

Cost: Working Spots - $150.00
Auditing Spots - $85.00

Working Spots will be limited to 8 dogs.
